Raider news notes

By TODD NASH

Along with the start of the academic school year comes the start of Raider sports.

Varsity football started off it's season Friday, September 2 against Gretna. After a tie score of 12 to qw against the Hawks, Coach Gary Cuccio commented on the outlook of the season by stating that he was cautiously optimistic that if the new players can gain experience early, they're in for a competitive season. The Raiders are defending Seminole District Champoins and play Randolph Henry this Friday night at Bragg Stadium, 8:00 p.m. game time.

Coach Howard Clabough is expecting quite an interesting season for this years Junior Varsity team. Their first game on Wednesday, August 31 saw them defeat Prince Edward County 28 to 12, a very decisive victory. Clabough also states that this years team holds more promise than last years and is a potentially better team.

Clabough, along with Coach John Pettyjohn has coached JV football for five years, winning the district four times with the exception of last year. The team plays Randolph Henry at Randolph Henry today at 7:30.

Fall sports don't just include touchdown bound guys, but gals going for the hoop too.

Raiderette basketball started off August 30 with a ten of 63 to 88 against the Gretna Hens, buy came back September 1 to defeat William Campbell. Coach Mary Tolley feels her team has worked very hard and is on as good a shape as any in the district, but also states the need for them to develop certain skills to be competitive in the district.

Coach Hudson leads his Junior Varsity Raiderette basketball team into play Tuesday, September 6. Hudson's goal is to improve last years record with girls who, he states may not be as physical as last years team, but who may prove to play smarter basketball.

Going for par is this years golf team led by Coach Doug Marshall. After a loss to Brookville September 1, the team is ready to go at it again September 8.

Please support these teams as they go out and represent our schools and community.

Bible Baptist slates revival

Homecoming will be held at Bible Baptist Church, the Reverend Robert E. Lee, pastor, on Sunday, September 11.

Sunday School will begin at 10 a.m. with worship service following at 11 a.m. Guest speakers will be the Reverend Jim Crews, evangelist and Pastor James Alley of Lynchburg. Guest singer will be Howard Jewell.

Jewell, in his 70's, has traveled extensively during his long career. He has been featured soloist for many notables in numereous city-wide campaigns and crusades.

As a child he began singing with his preacher father in pioneer Salvation Army work. As he grew, his talent matured and a keen sense of serving the Lord prodded him into the ministry.

He has had the rare privilege of singing for Bill Sunday, the world famous evangelist.

Following dinner on the grounds program of music will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Members and guests are cordially invited to attend.

Zion Baptist news

By SUSIE HUNTER

"Blessed be the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God."

Sunday, Sept. 4 was a busy day at Zion Baptist Church. The Rev. Lewis led regular preaching service at 11 a.m. The Senior Choir rendered beautiful music.

The Rev. Lewis, accompanied by his deacons, ushers and choir motored to Rustburg at 1:30 for the special homecoming service at New Vine Baptist Church, with the Rev. Mack Johnson, pastor. The Rev. Lewis preached a sermon titled "Getting Ready to go Home." After the service the ladies served dinner in the dining room. The Rev. Lewis will be guest pastor for the week of revival services.

The Pastor's Aid group will meet tonight (Sept. 7) at 7:30 at the church.

Members of Zion Baptist Church are invited to accompany the Rev. Lewis to Petersburg next week to preach a homecoming service. The bus will leave the church at 1:30 p.m. Ushers, deacons and the choir are all asked to be present.

An overflow crowd attended the funeral of Mrs. Venice Franklin Blakely Saturday at Zion Baptist Church. The Rev. James Franklin served as emcee. The Rev. Tim Lawing provided special music. Dr. C. M. Franklin, brother of the deceased, did the eulogy. Our sympathy goes out to the family.

Our sick are improving slowly.
